

Warwick Physics has risen to 4th place in the subject ranking for Physics and Astronomy of the Good University Guide
2015

85%

of Warwick Physics graduates were in graduate level jobs or further study 6 months after their graduation in 2013...

Warwick Physics alumni...

Karl Barnfather (1998) Patent Attorney & Chairman at Withers & Rogers LLP

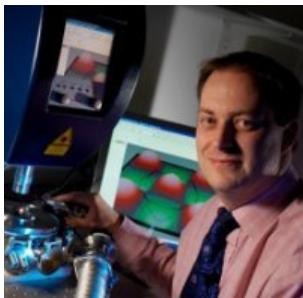

Jenny Wooldridge (2006)
Associate Programme Manager,
National Physical Laboratory

Adam Chalkley (2011)
Trainee Medical Physicist,
Queen Elizabeth Hospital

Anna Starkey (2001)
Creative Producer/Writer/Director

Markys Cain (1990)
Director, Scientific Research
Company

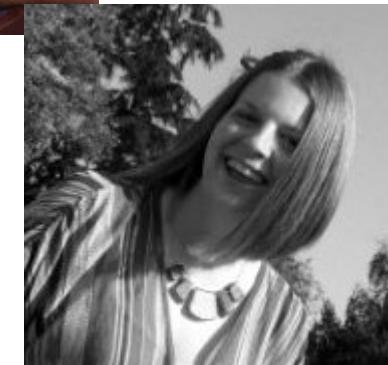

Steve Bennington (1989),
Managing Director Cella Energy

Adam Bacon (2012)
Management consultant

Warwick PhD Physicists in academia...

What % of top recruiters value employability as highly as academic qualifications?

50%

What % of top recruiters say that without work experience it will be difficult to get a graduate level job?

60%

Good degree...

Experience...

Know how to 'tell your story' to the employer/academic

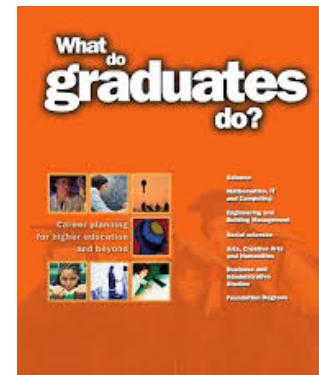

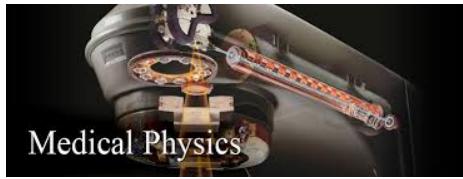

What should you do if you are undecided?

- 1. Book a careers appointment
- 2. Increase your self-awareness
- 3. LinkedIn
- 4. Get experience
- 5. Research vacancies gradcracker brightrecruits.com
- 6. Research the destinations of Warwick students & physics graduates nationally

GEMS

Medical Physics

Nuclear Physics

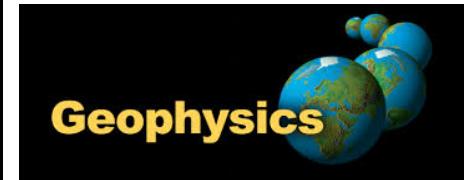

Science & Technology
Facilities Council

GOVERNMENT OPERATIONAL RESEARCH SERVICE

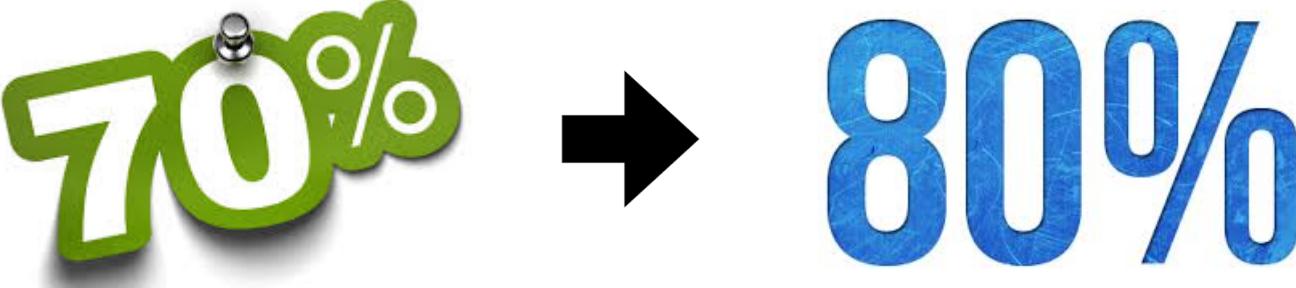

National Physical Laboratory

Rolls-Royce

70% → 80%

No specific degree discipline...

If you know what you want to do...

- Research

- Target your applications, make them effective
- Attend careers events, book careers appointments
- Prepare for interviews, assessment centres
- Use Moodle, My Advantage, Careers & Skills website

<https://myadvantage.warwick.ac.uk/>

r.ryan@warwick.ac.uk

'What can I do with a physics degree?'
Careers & Employer event Wed,
Oct 28th 1-3.30pm

Use Physics Careers Moodle page